Security Policy

I2P2M understands the importance of and is committed to Security of information, data, Documents & records in carrying out its certification activity.

i2P2M's management gives high level of emphasis to security throughout the entire certification process, for the reliability and efficacy of the system, by ensuring:

- Security of question bank

- Security and confidentiality of examination material during generation of question papers

- Transmittal of question paper to examination centres

- Retrieval of Question paper along with answer- books

- Undertaking of non- disclosure of questions from the attendees

- Prevention of fraudulent practices during examination

- Security of examination material and related equipment

- Security of data on electronic media and in hard copies

- Safeguarding of examination results for any trends of fraudulent practices

- Security of results during reporting.

- In case of on-line exam security of question paper and answers papers during electronically available to each candidates own computer by use of appropriate technology.